The rooms were plan was to select fifteen of the loveliest prettily decorated with palms, ferns and them at luncheon. Her intention was known to Chicago's 400 before the invitations were ready to be sent out, but as the clever hostess kept her own counsel as to the guests she had selected, the pretty maidens of the Chicago smart set were kept on the gul vive, alternating between hope and fear. For days before the luncheon the possibilities and impossibilities of invitations being extended to this. the city were discussed at receptions and few things this winter. Now that the bright Chicago hostess has evolved the idea of the specialty luncheon, a long succession of similar companies will suggest themselves to the receptive minds of prospective entertainers. The brightest girls, the brunette girls, the blonde girls, the girls of all kinds, with the possible exception of the plainest | Ida Ferrell, Miss Marie Vincent, Mrs. girls, might be selected for guests at special affairs instead of the old higgledy-piggledy method of inviting the people one wants or the people one is indebted to being followed. The trend of the times is toward specialists and specialties and it is small wonder that the fad has arrived in Social Calendar for the Coming Week. Brassen.

An apple-green silk petticoat is one of the prettiest of the new underskirts shown and is a typical example of the much-befrilled petticoat of the season. The deep flounce is tucked and shirred elaborately and is set on the skirt in vandykes, which are out- Hazel Severin. lined by a narrow ruching.

The black silk petticoat has taken on all the frivolity of the bright-colored petticoats and there is nothing staid about it except its color. One of the new black petticoats has a deep accordion-plaited flounce, this is set a second flounce cut in vandyke points, which are bordered with a fluffy ruching of black.

The lovely wide ribbons of the spring displays tempt to extravagance, they are so charming in their suggestions for sashes somest of the new ribbons is a wide soft taffeta, brocaded with tiny baskets and narrow ribbons tied in loveknots with flowing ends. A pale lavender ribbon shows baskets of violets, one of pale blue has the dainty baskets heaped with forget-me-nots, and one of green shows the basket heaped with unnatural, but lovely green blossoms.
